Former West Virginia
Governor Issues
Warning

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 20.—The United Mine Workers are striving for the nationalization of the coal industry, former Gov. Cornwell of West Virginia, declared in an address today at the closing session of the National Coal association's convention.

Demands of the miners for a 65 per cent increase, a six hour day and a five day week, the speaker declared, still stand and "behind it, is the other demand, made in their convention, for the nationalization of the coal industry of this country."

"You see what is going on in England," he said. "The contest that they have had there is still going, a strike of the mine workers demanding nationalization of the coal mines."

Mr. Wheeler contended that of the 35,000,000 gallons, fully 80 per cent was used for beverage purposes and that fraud and graft could be reduced to a minimum by amending the law so none of it could be removed until by medicating and denaturing it had been rendered unfit for drinking.

Tomorrow afternoon Dr. Zayas will deliver his first message at a joint session of congress. Interest in the inauguration of President Zayas is intensified not only because it ended a campaign marked by a "strike" of the liberal party voters and the congressmen and efforts by the defeated candidate in the presidential election, Gen. Jose Miguel Gomez, to have the election declared void on the ground of fraud, but because of the importance of the problems confronting the new administration.

The adjutant general of the army has 2,000,000 victory medals on hand out of the 4,000,000 struck off for distribution to the veterans. At first there was a rush for the decorations, but for some reason the demand lagged, and the war department has had to resort to much publicity to distribute the rest. Requests are coming in at the rate of about 60,000 a month, but it is the desire of department officials greatly to accelerate the demand. Medical officers are being maintained in the large cities, and it is an easy matter for an ex-service man to prove his title to one of the decorations.

localities in Jacksonville where playgrounds are sorely needed, and they could be established with a very reasonable expenditure of money, if only interested persons could be found to serve as play directors when the grounds and equipment have been found.
At the coming election the people of Morgan county will vote upon the question of a soldiers' memorial building. No more fitting plan to pay honor to the memory of ex-service men could be chosen. The erection of a memorial building is prompted by both sentiment and utility.
Just when the war closed it would have been an easy matter to secure the votes necessary for almost any kind of a memorial project. The debt that people felt then still exists. The memorial plan as presented to the people of Morgan county offers a way for the payment of that debt.
Mr. Chipfield, who is the Republican candidate for justice of the supreme court in this district, has served as the clerk of district court. Then he became judge of a court of record and still later served as district attorney. His experience includes a period of years as referee in bankruptcy. In addition he has justly earned the reputation of a close student and has made the study and practice of law the business of his life for more than twenty years. That record thoroughly justifies the word "experienced." It is a man of this type who should be elected to membership in the highest court of Illinois.

Col. C. R. Miller, director of the department of public works and buildings, in commenting upon the possible letting of road contracts soon, said:
"We sincerely hope that all material producers and bidders will realize the necessity of bringing prices down where the state will be justified in going ahead with the work. Governor Small is most anxious to see road building pushed rapidly forward. He will not, however, authorize the expenditure of road money at prices which are not equitable. He is just as determined as ever to get a dollar's worth of roads for every dollar spent."

If you want to do something worth while for this community, develop the playground idea. You can find ample proof of the need of playgrounds any evening if you will pass along the streets in some of the congested residence districts of Jacksonville. There nightly you will find dozens of children, boys and girls from three years old up to fifteen, playing on the sidewalks under the electric lights, without equipment of any kind. They hail passersby. They dart in and out between passing automobiles and try to have a good time they denied some of the advantages the children have in other parts of the city.
These boys and girls will make far better men and women if they are befriended in this play stage of their lives. There are several

NAME COMMITTEES FOR CELEBRATION
Committee Appointed by Mayor Crabtree Starts Work for Celebrating Completion of Water System—Celebration to be Held July 4.

Recently a committee was appointed by Mayor Crabtree to formulate plans for the proper celebration of the completion of the new Jacksonville water works and filtration plant.
It was the thought of the mayor when he named this committee that the successful completion of this project and the splendid cooperative spirit that had been developed was well worthy of observance.
The committee held its first meeting at the Courier office Friday night and as a result sub-committees were appointed to work out the details of the celebration. July 4 was the time selected for the celebration.
It was decided that an all day picnic will be held on the shore of Lake Mauvaisterre on the above date. Most all business firms in the city will observe this day as a holiday which will enable practically every citizen to take part in the celebration.
All citizens are invited to take their dinners and spend the day at the park. There will be speaking, plenty of music and other amusements. Full details of the day's festivities, have however, not been fully outlined. There will be nothing to prevent anyone from having their fireworks display in the evening as it will be the purpose to have a regular fire for all Jacksonville day.

In addition to speakers and music the new plant will be open for inspection. Every merchant in Jacksonville is invited to make a display of his wares, whether for sale or not.
The completion of the new waterworks marks a new era in the history of Jacksonville. For many years citizens have dreamed of this, but have despaired of its fulfillment. Now the dream has come true, it is a reality and there is cause for rejoicing that it has come true.
There have been many big celebrations in Jacksonville on July 4. One which many remember was the impromptu celebration of the news of the victory of the American fleet in the battle of Santiago during the Spanish-American war. This news came on July 4th and was the cause of a celebration in addition to the one which was already in progress.
In 1919 Jacksonville also celebrated July 4 properly when all the county's soldiers of the world war were given a dinner at Nicholas park. This was preceded by a big parade down town.
This year the celebration should be as big as any the city has ever seen. With good weather every citizen and his family should be at Mauvaisterre park. There is plenty of room. There will be good fishing and everything to make for a pleasant holiday.

The committee, appointed by Chairman W. L. Fay follows:
Platform speakers and music—H. M. Capps, Dr. J. R. Barker.
Finance—Carl Graubner.
Refreshments—Geo. Schmalz.
Grounds—Dennis Schram.
Amusements—W. E. Boston.

A Tribute from His Birthplace

(Editorial in Roodhouse Record)

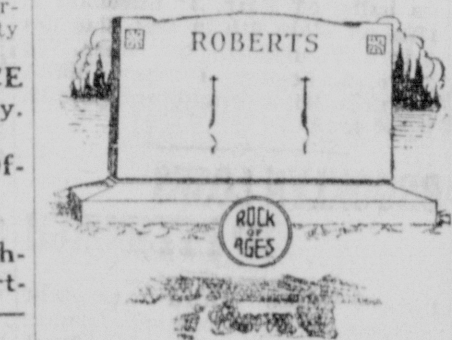

While leading newspapers of the state are editorially endorsing the candidacy of Justice Floyd E. Thompson of Rock Island for reelection in June, it may be of more than passing interest for us of his old home town and community to review in some measure the earlier history of this young man who grew up among us, was graduated from our high school, and whose judicial career of the past two years has won for him so high a regard of public opinion that an insistent demand is being made for his return to the bench without regard to partisan politics. What we have in mind is a young boy on his father's farm just a few miles north of Roodhouse, where we knew him well and came to know him better and appreciate more fully his sturdy character when he entered the four years' course at our high school. Through early training and by natural instinct he was a gentleman, and an elemental trait that impressed his acquaintances was his faithfulness to every obligation and assiduity to the task in hand, qualities that have stuck to him and earned for him the reputation of being one of the hardest workers among his eminent associates on the bench. Popular enough with his young companions, yet his friendships carried no age limit. We older people liked him for his manly bearing, his unostentatious though always cordial greeting, and it would be difficult to name a young man who has gone from this town taking with him a cleaner reputation or better wishes than Floyd E. Thompson. Viewed from our early knowledge of the boy, is it then surprising for us now to read in the daily press that he has "made a record for industry, intelligence and ability" in the high office to which he ment undried, to all, the youngest jurist of them all, but two scant years ago? The same concentration of effort which typified his earlier life as a pupil, later as teacher in a country school, and then a law student, commends itself as an example to our present youth, to measure up to the highest ideals of American citizenship according to their natural abilities, advancing step by step into the greater activities and responsibilities of life, with honesty and courage.

ILLINOIS AGAIN BOWS TO NORMAL

Lose Hard Game to Visitors By Score of 5 to 4 After Having It Sewed Up—Normal Comes from Behind and Scores Three Runs in Eighth.

Illinois college again bowed to Normal Friday afternoon when she lost a hard fought game by a score of 5 to 4. Illinois made enough runs in the first inning to win the game, but handed it back to Normal in the second by some weird playing. Then after Fierke had made the circuit in the seventh when Litwiller missed his drive it looked like Illinois had the game on ice again.

However, the old adage, "there is many a slip twixt the cup and the lip" was exemplified when Normal came from behind in the eighth and scored three runs and won the game.

The main thing in the way of an Illinois victory was one Mr. Hyatt who hurried for Normal. Hyatt looked like his arm was ready to fall off when he started. However, he soon got it oiled up and during most of the time had the Illinois batters lying down and rolling over and doing other tricks.

Hyatt yielded eight hits but for the most part they were well scattered. He whiffed twelve men. Fanning was not in as good form as usual. He allowed seven hits and struck out six men. However, he uncorked a wild pitch that allowed one of Normal's runs to score.

Both teams played a good game in the field, the errors of both figured in the scoring. It was a good game to look at and the spectators had plenty of opportunity to root. The secret of the loss rests largely in the inability to hit with men on bases. The score:

Llew Johnson.
The news in Friday's Journal, of the passing on of L. L. Johnson reminded me of the boy and young man we used to call Lew Johnson.

He was quite large for his age, so he was a big boy to me, when I came here.

There was always the charm of fine kindness about Lew; as everyone who met him probably felt. There are not many of the boys left since before the War, who knew him—perhaps only John A. Ayers, Henry S. Stevenson and Archibald Norris—the latter a comrade in the Morgan County regiment, 191st.

Mr. Johnson lived in the large old style house which stood at the southwest corner of State and West streets till about 1863. After the War he went westward, and has only been here occasionally since. He went to the old West District school in Bateman's and Tunnell's days, and I guess everybody liked him. Ensign Moore.

OF MONEY RATES

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, May 20.—Depreciation of quoted values in the stock market made further substantial progress today. Reactions encompassed a majority of the popular issues, the only exceptions being a few specialties protected by bull pools.

The same discouraging factors which served as restraining influences in the preceding days of the week were operative again. Chief among these were the continued tightness of money rates and additional dividend suspensions.

Rails as a group lost one to three points and oils of the better class yielded as much with more severe losses in obscure issues and steels. Equipments, motors and utilities were lower by one to four points. Sales amounted to 650,000 shares.

Brokers reported more than the usual demand for call money, all of which was placed at 7 per cent on the exchange, but in the open market this quotation was shaded to six and a half per cent. Long time loans and merchants' held at six three quarters to seven per cent save for prime collateral and names. Liberty bonds closed at nominal gains.

WHEAT MARKET
CLOSED STRONG

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, May 20.—Soaring prices today for wheat resulted largely from bullish crop conditions both west and southwest. The market closed strong, 3 1/2 to 7 1/2¢ net higher, with May $1.59 1/2 to $1.59 3/4 and July $1.23 1/2 to $1.24 1/4. Corn finished unchanged to 1/2¢ lower; oats gained 1/2¢ to 3/4¢ and provisions lost 1/2¢ to 5¢.

From the outset, bulls had the advantage in the wheat market. It appeared to be generally admitted that the winter wheat crop has suffered material injury, the southwest in particular losing ground, notably Oklahoma, Texas and Missouri. Reports were also current that unless plentiful moisture came soon in Kansas heavy losses would occur in sections which at present look promising. Bulls made much too of gossip that Russia had been buying wheat at Liverpool and was in the market for more. Inasmuch as under normal conditions Great Britain would be obtaining supplies from Russia instead of shipping to that country, the inference was that continued export demand for United States wheat would remain an important factor. With such an outlook, the market developed strength to the last, closing at practically the topmost level of the day. Predictions that corn receipts here would show a decided increase next week tended to weaken the corn market. On the other hand, reports indicated that the condition of oats is below the average for this time of the year.

In the provision market, the effect of higher quotations on hogs was counterbalanced by the weakness of corn.

CASH GRAIN
REPORT

By Associated Press.
CHICAGO, May 20.—Hard wheat premiums were unchanged today but red and spring were off 1 1/2¢; No. 1 northern selling at the same as May price as in close. The seaboard advised of 750,000 bushels of Manitoba hogs booked for Europe, but slow demand for gulf wheat. The cash corn basis was firmer, oats unchanged, and rye half cent lower.

Country offerings of corn to arrive were heavy during the last part of the session and increased fair bookings of new wheat were reported.

Local cash sales were 9,000 bushels of wheat, 105,000 bushels of corn and 139,000 bushels of oats. Carl of receipts were: Wheat, 12 cars; corn, 198 cars; oats, 114 cars.

WILL OF PETER RANSON IS FILED FOR RECORD

Late Morgan County Resident Disposes of Large Estate By Will Drawn June 12, 1914—Unusual Provision in Document.

The will of the late Peter Ranson was filed for probate yesterday in the office of County Clerk G. L. Riggs. Mr. Ranson made his will on the 12th day of June, 1914, with Julian P. Lippincott and L. O. Vaughn as the witnesses to the signature. On May 3, 1919, he made a codicil slightly changing the provision of the will and the signature at that time was witnessed by O. F. Buefle and Charles B. Graft.

Two of the sons of the testator, Frank W. and William K. Ranson, are named as executors. One unusual provision of the will is that if the heirs so desire when the farm land of the estate is offered for sale each heir may file a sealed bid with the county clerk and the land shall be sold to the highest bidder obtained at this time.

The first section of the will provides for the payment of debts and for a headstone. The testator suggests to his executors that all claims filed against the estate be scanned with special care, as he had always done business on a cash basis and very seldom contracted debts. He provided that the executors are to see without bond and there be no appraisal of the estate.

That part of the estate which is willed to the son, Walter Ranson, is placed in the care of executors because of the ill-health of the son mentioned. Mr. Ranson owned government bonds of different issues and provided that the different issues should be divided equally among his four children so that each may share in the appreciation or depreciation of the bonds.

In section 7 the testator directs that all the estate shall be equally divided among the children. In section 8 it is provided that the real estate may be sold in the customary way after giving newspaper publication or by posting notices. However in the discretion of the executors instead of having a public sale they may set a day by giving thirty days' previous notice in writing to their brothers and each of the sons may file with the county clerk a sealed bid for any parcel or parcels or all of the real estate. These bids on the day set or as soon thereafter as convenient shall be opened by the clerk in the presence of all the sons bidding and those bids which produce the greatest sum for the whole shall be deemed the highest bid.

The proceeds of any such sale will be divided equally among the four children. Further, Mr. Ranson stated that he does not wish his executors to feel hurried in the execution of the will, and authorized them to delay selling the real estate until such time as they believe a fair price can be obtained.

The codicil to the will again refers to the son, Walter Ranson, and provides that if all the funds from his share of the estate are not necessary for his use, that the annual residue shall be distributed among the other three sons. However, the full share of Walter Ranson in the estate is to be kept intact, in event he later is able to enter into its possession.

JURY'S VERDICT SETS ASIDE MALLORY WILL

Jury Reaches Agreement Late Friday Afternoon Setting Aside Will of Late Edward Mallory—New Trial Likely.

The jury which heard the evidence in the Mallory will case brought in a verdict about 4:45 o'clock Friday afternoon setting aside the will. It had been the contention of Hugh P. Green, an attorney for the complainant, Blanche Mallory Williams, that undue influences were used upon Edward Mallory causing him to leave practically all of his estate to his second wife, Mrs. Mazie Mallory.

The daughter, Mrs. Blanche Mallory Williams, according to the provisions of the will was to receive but $100. The taking of testimony and presentation of argument occupied the time of the court until about 3:45. The jury was instructed and the verdict was returned as indicated. It is likely that attorneys for the wife of the deceased will enter motion for a new trial.

PERMANENCE IS A C. OF C. CONSIDERATION

This Factor Taken Strongly Into Account in Organization Plans—Mr. Trefz Testifies to Rotary Club Aid.

Edward F. Trefz, organization counsel of American City Bureau, has in connection with the organization movement of the Chamber of Commerce, yesterday noon addressed the Rotary Club at the Pacific hotel. More than eighty business and professional men were present.

After Mr. Trefz reviewed the history of the organization in becoming a national institution, he pointed out the ideals of the Rotary club, particularly that of service, as especially being adaptable in working hand in hand with a Chamber of Commerce. As a matter of fact the Rotary clubs in all the cities of any measurable size were on every hand lending their cooperative spirit in aiding Chambers of Commerce to accomplish the ideals and aims that can only be worked out by the institution. The Chamber of Commerce.

To the last of the series of questions that the executive committee have worked out, the committee wishes to submit the following:
The Permanence Question
What about the permanence of the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce?
In the minds of those who have examined the plans of the organization movement, there is of course no question. But others have and will ask, and we are glad to point out certain obvious facts.

A Chamber of Commerce is an organization whose life depends upon the activity and cooperation of its memberships. A board of directors does not constitute a Chamber of Commerce. A board of directors without the support of the membership is impotent. Consequently the plan of organization of a Chamber of Commerce which looks forward to permanency and consistently increasing strength must deal first, last and all the time with the membership.

One of the team captains remarked the other day after a careful discussion of the plans for organizing the Chamber of Commerce, that the program adopted in many respects a reverse of that which has been followed in some places, heretofore.

The new members who will come in large numbers to the Jacksonville Chamber of Commerce will be eager and insistent that the chamber do something. It has been the practice in some Chambers of Commerce organization movements, after the members have enlisted, to promptly forget them. After the organization movement campaign, not a day will elapse before the call will go out for the members to elect directors. As soon as this is done, and the officers have been chosen the members will again be called upon to answer the question: "What is the Chamber of Commerce going to do?"

When each member of the chamber has made his or her answer to this question, the membership as a whole will have given the directors a well-defined program to which they are pledged.

The next question before the membership is, who will carry this program through? Again the answer must come from the membership. The board of directors is a directing body and the membership is a working body.

The Outline of Work
Out of the program of work will come carefully defined specific tasks for the committees to do. There will be no standing committees and no waiting committees. Each assignment that is given to a committee will be to be done and when, and it is the business of the manager of the Chamber of Commerce and of the president and of the board of directors to see that the committees keep steadily on their jobs.

"PRUNELLA" TO BE STAGED TONIGHT

I. W. C. Dramatic Club Will Give Play on Campus at 8 P. M.

Tonight on the campus of Illinois Woman's College, the Dramatic Club will present "Prunella," a charming fantasy by Granville Barker and Lawrence Hausman. The rehearsals have been in charge of Miss Constance McCammon, head of the Expression department, and the play promises to be very well staged. Miss Belle Mehus of the College of Music has arranged some music appropriate to the play, and the college orchestra will play.

"Prunella" is a fantasy of Love in a Dutch Garden, and the campus has been transformed into a very picturesque and charming Holland scene. The lighting and the bright colored costumes have been arranged so as to produce a very artistic and lovely atmosphere.

The cast is as follows: Pierrot, Harriet Keys; Sacramel, Margaret Willis; Prunella, Lesta Gibbons; Prim, Prude and Privacy, her aunts, Marian Humphreys, Ruth Rowell and Dorothy Remley; Boy, Margaret Hamilton; Love, a statue, Vera Marshon; the gardeners, Hazel Logan, Margaret Turner and Josephine Rink. The numbers are: Hawk, Ada Clotfelter; Kennel, Constance Hasenstab; Callow, Margaret Fowler; Mith, Esther Harper; Doll, Mary Elizabeth Frazer; Rum, Martha Sellow; Tawdry, Fonda Mae Jamison; Coquette, Kathryn Miller; Tenor, a hired singer, Anna Canad.

MORGAN STREET CAFE TO BE REMODELED
The work of remodeling and enlarging of the Hall cafe on West Morgan street is soon to begin, the contract for the work having been let by the proprietors, Messrs. Birnbaum & Moore Bros. The plan contemplates such changes that when the work is completed the restaurant will have a seating capacity of seventy or more persons.

The partition between the present cafe and the storage room to the west will be torn out and a part of the latter room will be included in the remodeled restaurant. There will also be extensive interior decoration and a new ventilating system installed. The lunch counter will be placed in the added room on the west and thus space afforded in the east room for the additional tables. The building is owned by Byron Armstrong and new floors will be placed in both of the rooms.

Robert Birnbaum, Dan and J. L. Moore came to Jacksonville from Springfield eight months ago and during that time their business has grown in a very satisfactory way.

WILL CLEAN UP LEWIS CEMETERY
Edward Elmore, mail carrier on Jacksonville route 7 and interested persons have designated May 23 to 28 as clean-up week for Lewis cemetery northwest of Woodson. It seems that the cemetery needs attention and so these men are requesting all who are interested in the cemetery to have the lots cleaned before May 28th.

Lewis cemetery is one of the old burying grounds of the county and has been in use since at least 1839. Persons who have friends or relatives there are asked to join in this movement and others who may know of non-resident persons having relatives or friends there are asked to notify them. Mr. Elmore resides at 1337 South East street and will be glad to communicate with any person willing to join in this effort.

MEN ARRESTED HERE TRIED AT CARLINVILLE

Russell and Divine Put Under Heavy Bond—Coins Show Complicity in Scottville Bank Robbery—Wanted Elsewhere.

Sheriff W. H. Weatherford and Chief of Police Frank Kiloran returned last night from Carlinville where they went to attend the preliminary hearing of three men charged with complicity in the robbery of the Scottville bank. The three men, Henry Russell, Charles Divine and George Clark, were arrested by Sheriff Weatherford and his deputies near Concord, on suspicion that they were mixed up in a robbery of a freight car at Concord when a Burlington detective was shot and seriously injured.

Subsequent events indicated the connection of the men with the Scottville case and the sheriff of Macoupin county came here and took the men to Carlinville. The evidence against Russell and Divine was such that they were placed under $2,000 bonds each and Clark was discharged. However he was immediately arrested for authorities in Christian county, accused of having had part in a bank holdup at Grove City in that county.

The men were defended by Attorneys Murphy and Hemphill of Macoupin county and seem to have adequate funds for their defense. Russell has been positively identified as a man wanted in Indianapolis for having jumped a bail of $5,000 after he had been charged with a safe blowing escape. His further record shows that he was sent from Chicago to Leavenworth in 1909 on a robbery charge and escaped from that prison in 1911.

At one time he was tried in Chicago on a charge of having killed a night watchman, but was acquitted. Among his numerous aliases were Ed Stevens and Thomas Winters.

When the men were arrested in this county and searched each had about $50 in money, part of it in gold coin. There were witnesses yesterday to testify that the gold coin came from the Scottville bank. A Canadian half dollar which one of them had in his pocket was also identified as a part of the Scottville bank loot.

The facts as to Divine's record have not been thoroughly sifted out but Macoupin county authorities feel very sure that they will find he is a fit companion for Henry Russell. While there is practically no evidence against the men to connect them with the Concord case here, taking into account the other facts about them it is more than probable that they were guilty of that crime.

CLINIC FOR CRIPPLED CHILDREN HELD FRIDAY
Twenty crippled children of Morgan county were examined yesterday at the free clinic held at the Red Cross headquarters by Dr. C. W. East of the Illinois State department of health. Assisting the specialist nurse, Miss Loving, the tuberculosis nurse.

Tables and all the equipment needed for such a clinic had been arranged in the headquarters room and the work was carried on expeditiously. In each case the parents or others responsible for the children were given word while suggestions as to their care. In work of this class Dr. East prefers to confer with the family physician about each individual case, as in this way he is able to gain knowledge of past history. In some cases it is deemed advisable to have the crippled child removed to the special hospital at Springfield for treatment.

ATTENTION G. A. R. and W. R. C.
All members of Matt Starr post G. A. R. and the Women's Relief Corps are requested to meet Sunday on East Court street in O'Donnell's garage at 2:15 p. m. to attend in a body the exercises at the home of Dr. Black on West State street. A funeral service will be held there at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning and interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.

MRS. G. V. BLACK DIES IN CHICAGO HOSPITAL

Funeral Service Will Be Held Here Sunday Morning—Interment in Diamond Grove Cemetery.

A message received yesterday by Dr. Carl E. Black brought the news of the death of Mrs. G. V. Black at midnight Thursday. Mrs. Black had been a patient at the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago for the past week and her death occurred there.

The deceased was a daughter of Ira W. and Minerva Davenport, early residents of the county. She was born May 5, 1840, and so recently observed her eighty-first birthday. Mrs. Black's mother before her marriage was Minerva Reid, a sister of Mrs. Sarah Capps.

It was on Sept. 25, 1865, that the deceased was married to Dr. Greene V. Black, in this city, which remained their home until about twenty years ago. Because of Dr. Black's connection with Northwestern Medical college and other work in Chicago, the family home at that time was changed to Evanston.

During the greater part of her life Mrs. Black was a member of Centenary M. E. church, earnestly interested in its work. A woman of quiet, unassuming spirit her greatest pleasure was found in her home and there good cheer and hospitality always had place.

Surviving are two sons and three daughters. Dr. Carl E. Black of this city, Miss Clara Black and Dr. Arthur D. Black of Evanston. Mrs. Mark Baldwin, Duluth, Minn.

A funeral service will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home in Evanston, and Dr. and Mrs. Carl E. Black left last night for Chicago to be present. The funeral party will reach Jacksonville at midnight Saturday and the body will be taken to the home of Dr. Black on West State street. A funeral service will be held there at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning and interment will be made in Diamond Grove cemetery.
